VALUES

South Street Primary School's whole school expectations of Be SAFE, Be RESPECTFUL and Be a LEARNER encompass the key behaviours we expect to see across all areas of the school. Our whole school matrix explicitly highlight these areas and the behaviour expectations.

- All stakeholders have the right to Be SAFE at South Street. To do this we all have a part to play in ensuring physical, emotional and psychological safety. This might look as simple as walking instead of running through a corridor, keeping our hand, feet and other objects to ourselves or turning off the taps after we have washed our hands. Safety is the foundation of everything we do.
- We believe all people should interact and behave in a RESPECTFUL manner. This includes listening to those who are talking, respecting others' differences and abilities and interacting with kindness and care. Everyone is also expected to treat school property appropriately. For example, only toilet paper is only to be placed in the toilet and we must ask politely and have permission before touching other people's belongings. Respect is taught frequently, every day, at our school.
- To be a LEARNER at South Street we understand that there are a variety of behaviours we need to optimise our own and others experiences to learn new information. We encourage all people to try their best, be persistent and ask for help when needed. We also understand that basic skills such as staying in our seat, asking questions and raising our hand to participate are all part of what good learners do.
