Moe South Street Primary School

Volume 22 Issue 32

27th October 2022

News from our Principal....

Recently, South Street Primary School students had the opportunity to meet and greet the new captain of the Melbourne Stars, local Nicole Faltum.

Nicole visited the school for the special announcement and to promote the Women's Big Bash Festival, which comes to Moe for a three-match event on Saturday the 19th and Sunday the 20th of November.

South Street Primary School has the chance to host a BBQ fundraiser as part of the event. Today, all families will receive a letter outlining how you can be involved and help.

On top of supporting our school's fundraising efforts, you will also get to watch the best domestic women's cricket competition in the world and help inspire the next generation of active and healthy children.

We would love as many families as possible to help, and if you can spare an hour, please return the form to the office by Monday, the 7th of November.

Your support is greatly appreciated!

At South Street Primary School we grow people who:

Are creative, curious and independent learners. Are resilient and problem solve when faced with challenges. Respect and care about themselves, each other and the world in which we live.

We acknowledge the Gunai Kurnai people as traditional owners of this land and pay our respects to elders both past and present.

Day for Daniel

Tomorrow, we will be recognising
The Day for Daniel, Australia's largest child safety and awareness day held in memory of Daniel Morcombe.

The Day for Daniel is a chance to wear
red and have a conversation about personal safety.

There are some great conversation starters available for parents to begin talking about child safety.

You might like to start by asking:

- Who are the grown-ups in your network you can talk about anything to?
- Which parts of the body are private body parts?
- Who else can you call when you feel safe?
- Do you know where to find these phone numbers?

There are helps more examples and conversation starters available at <https://bit.ly/3DxTTqs> or by searching Daniel Morcombe, visiting the website and searching for conversation cards.

Later in the newsletter, you can find more information about our Child Safe Policies and practices.

Don't hesitate to get in touch with me via phone or email if you want to get in touch and provide feedback on any of the listed policies.
